INTRODUCTION.

THERE are scarcely any diseases, incident to the human frame, to which the Poor of this Metropolis, from a variety of circumstances, are more subject than those which affect the Eye; nor are there any whose consequences are more painful and distressing. This general consideration added to the peculiar sufferings of the Soldiers and Sailors since the Egyptian Expedition, induced Mr. WATHEN PHIPPS to lay before their Majesties, through the condescension of His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, the proposition of establishing an Infirmary, exclusively for the reception of persons afflicted with Diseases of the Eye, where every advantage resulting from operations, proper treatment, attention, and diet, might be obtained. He had for many years received indiscriminately all poor persons labouring under Diseases of the Eye, on certain days and hours, and administered to them gratuitously both advice and external applications. But as the number of these had for fourteen years amounted annually to 1000, 1500, and even to 2000, the small relief afforded by a single individual was totally inadequate to their wants; since in a variety of cases and operations they required the aid of an Hospital, where they might receive advantages, it was impossible to give them at their own habitations. These facts having been represented to their Majesties, they most humanely and graciously condescended not only to approve the plan, but also to become the Patrons of it, and Benefactors to it. His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and the other branches of the Royal Family, were also pleased to receive it under their protection. With this sanction the promoters of this Institution appealed to a generous Public to second these endeavours; and enable them to establish such a foundation as would secure to the afflicted every comfort and advantage their situations might demand, by admitting those into the House whose cases require peculiar attention, or who may be the subjects of the operation for the cataract; and by extending more widely and effectually the help of advice and medicine to those whom it would not be necessary to take into the Infirmary. The liberal contributions already received have enabled the promoters of this Institution to open the Infirmary; and they trust that the continuance and increase of the subscriptions will permit them by degrees to admit a larger number of persons into the house. For this purpose they still earnestly solicit the benevolence of the Public.

REGULATIONS.

A Donation of Ten Guineas constitutes a Life Governor, with the privilege of having two Patients constantly on the Books.

An Annual Benefaction of One Guinea, affords the privilege of having one Out Patient constantly on the Books; but has no vote.

An Annual Benefaction of Half a Guinea, affords the privilege of sending one Out Patient in the year; but has no vote.

The affairs of this Charity, under the Royal Patronage, are conducted by a regular Committee of Twenty Five Gentlemen, and the President, Vice Presidents, Treasurer, and Medical Officers; but the Committee is open to any Governor who may wish to attend.

Five Gentlemen are to be annually appointed out of the regular Committee, as a Committee of Accounts.

The Committee meet at the Royal Infirmary, the first Tuesday in every month, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, for the transaction of business; and for this three persons are deemed sufficient.

A Sub-Committee, for the admission of such Patients as shall be selected from the Out Patients by the Medical Officers, as proper objects for admission into the House, meet every Tuesday, at Eleven o'Clock, at the Infirmary, and of these, one, with the Medical Officer is efficient.

A General Meeting will be called, by public advertisement, on the first Tuesday after the 18th of January, and the last Tuesday in May, to which all the Accounts and Transactions of the Charity will be submitted.

The Treasurer is to present his Accounts quarterly to the Committee; and at every half yearly General Meeting to pay all monies received by him into the hands of the Banker; and all drafts signed by him are also to be signed by the Chairman, and countersigned by the Secretary.

The Secretary is to attend all Meetings of the Committee, and all General Meetings; keep all the minutes and papers; receive such Subscriptions and Donations as may be paid at the Royal Infirmary, and repay the same to the Treasurer weekly.

No Annual Subscriber, after the present year, can vote at any General Meeting, until a second subscription shall have been duly paid.

The Collector must find sufficient security for the faithful discharge of his office; shall collect all subscriptions as they become due, keep a correct list thereof, and pay the same to the Treasurer at every monthly meeting of the Committee, or oftener if required.

No persons are deemed proper objects of this Charity, but Soldiers, Sailors, and such as are really necessitous.

The Royal Infirmary will be opened for the Relief of Out Patients, every Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday, at Nine o'Clock in the Forenoon; and every Tuesday, at Eleven, for the admission of In Patients; but urgent cases may be admitted by the Surgeon at other times, and presented by him to the Committee on the following Tuesday.

Tickets of Admission may be had by any Governor, upon Application at the Royal Infirmary.
